

1002 Modes of Transportation – DRAFT Standard

NEMTAC has identified the various levels of services required by passengers. In providing these levels of services the assistances provided is commensurate with the needs of the passenger or as defined under contract.

1002.1 Ambulatory

Any passenger who is not traveling in or on a mobility device for the purposes of transportation and occupies a vehicle seat during the trip.

1002.2 Secure Transportation

A secure transport is a passenger who is transported in a vehicle equipped with a divider between the passenger and the driver/operator equipped to prevent the passenger from opening doors or windows from the inside of the vehicle.

1002.3 Wheelchair/Mobility Device Transportation

The term Wheelchair/Mobility Device Transportation accommodating a person who uses a wheelchair/mobility Device as defined by the ADA.

1002.4 Bariatric Wheelchair/Mobility Device Transportation

A passenger traveling in a wheelchair or mobility device which would be classified as a bariatric capable device.

1002.5 Stretcher Transportation

A vehicle which is equipped with access and appropriate securements for a stretcher used for transporting a passenger.

1002.6 Bariatric Stretcher Transportation

A vehicle which is equipped with access and appropriate securements for a stretcher used for transporting a passenger whose weight is greater than X lbs.